The Scriptures:

We believe that the Holy Bible as originally written was inspired by the Holy Spirit, and the product of Spirit controlled men, and is a perfect treasure of heavenly instruction; that it has God as its Author, salvation for its end, and truth without any mixture of error for its matter; that it reveals the principle by which God will judge us; and therefore is, and shall remain to the end of the world, the only complete and final revelation of the will of God to man, and the true center of all Christian union, and the supreme standard by which all human conduct, creeds, and opinions should be tried and therefore, is the truth without any mixture of error for its matter.

1. By the Holy Bible we mean that collection of sixty-six books from Genesis to The Revelation, divinely preserved in the English language and commonly known as the Authorized, King James Version of 1611 A. D. which will be the only version of the Bible our church authorizes for instruction through preaching of God's Word.
2. By inspiration we mean that all books of the Bible were written down by holy men of God as they were moved by the Holy Ghost, in a definite way so as to record the very words of God that such writings are free from all error and from all omission as no other writings have been or will ever be; that the Bible does not merely contain the word of God, but is the only Word of God.:

The True God:

We believe the Scriptures teach that there is one, and only one, living and true God, an infinite, intelligent Spirit, the maker and Supreme Ruler of Heaven and Earth; inexpressibly glorious in holiness, and worthy of all possible honor, confidence, and love; that in the unity of the Godhead there are three Persons, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost; equal in every divine perfection, and executing distinct but harmonious offices in the great work of redemption. God The Son:

We believe the Scriptures teach that Jesus Christ is the only begotten Son of God, co-equal, co-essential, and co-eternal with God the Father and God the Holy Ghost, the second Person of the Trinity; that He was born into this world of Mary, a virgin, as no other man was ever born or can ever be born of a woman, and that He is both perfect God and perfect man; that He lived a sinless life, honoring the divine Law by His personal obedience, yet identifying Himself completely with mankind; that He died by death on the cross securing redemption through His shed blood for sinners; that He rose again the third day with a glorious body, was seen of many, and ascended into the heavens to be exalted and seated at the right hand of the Father where He is Head over His church, the Mediator and Advocate with God the Father for all believers; and that He is coming again to reign personally and visible over His people.

God The Holy Spirit And Spiritual Gifts:

We believe the Scriptures teach that the Holy Ghost is a divine Person, equal with God the Father and God the Son and of the same nature; the third Person of the Trinity; that He was active in the creation of the universe; that He moved holy men of God to write the Bible; that He is the present representative of the Godhead on this earth, and His relationship was active in creation; that in His relation to the unbelieving world he restrains evil until God's purpose be fulfilled; that He bears witness to the third Person of the Trinity; and in His relationship Truth of the Gospel in preaching and in testimony; is the Agent of the new birth, those who by faith believe on the Lord Jesus Christ; that He seals, fills, guides, teaches, sanctifies, and comforts all believers, cultivating in them Christian character and bestowing upon them spiritual gifts by which they serve God in the church, these gifts being entirely unlike those false-hoods perpetrated within the so-called Charismatic Movement today.

Concerning Mankind:

We believe the Scriptures teach that God created man in His own image and after His own likeness; that man is notably distinct from all other forms of life, we believe that man's creation was not a matter of evolution or evolutionary change of species, or development through periods of time from lower to higher forms of life; that the entire Genesis account of creation is to be accepted literally and came directly from God. Genesis 1:26,27.

The Fall Of Man:

We believe the Scriptures teach that man was created in innocence by the Father; The Son, and The Holy Ghost, but by voluntary transgression through an act of deliberate disobedience fell from that sinless and happy state; in consequence of which all mankind are now sinners, being by nature utterly void of that holiness required by God, therefore under just condemnation to eternal ruin without defense or excuse.

Civil Government:

We believe the Scriptures teach that civil government is of divine appointment, for the interest and good of human society; that all those in authority are to be prayed for, conscientiously honored and obeyed, except only in things opposed to the revealed will of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is the only Lord of All of the rulers of the Earth; that civil rulers have no rights or control over , or interference with, religious matters; that Churches and religious organizations should receive no help from the State, except protection and full freedom in the pursuit of spiritual belief.

The Law And The Gospel:

We believe the Scriptures teach that the Law of God is the eternal and unchangeable rule of His moral government; that it is holy, just, and good; and that the inability which the Scriptures ascribe to fallen men to fulfill its precepts arises entirely from their sinful nature; to deliver them from which, and to restore them through a Mediator of unfeigned obedience to the Holy law is the one great end of the Gospel, that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, and that He was buried, and rose again the third day according to the Scriptures.

The Virgin Birth:

We believe that Jesus was begotten of the Holy Ghost in a miraculous manner, born of Mary, a virgin, as no other man was ever born or can ever be born of woman, and that He is the Son of God.

Genesis 3:15; Isaiah 7:14; Matthew 1:18-25; Luke 1:35; John 1:4

God's Purpose Of Grace:

We believe the Scriptures teach that salvation is a gift of God's free grace and is the eternal purpose of God, according to which He graciously regenerates, sanctifies, and saves those sinners who by faith believe on the Lord Jesus Christ; and cannot be merited nor secured in any part or in whole by any virtue or work of man, but is received only by repentance from sin and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ; that it is a most glorious display of God's sovereign goodness, being limitlessly free, wise, holy, and unchangeable; that it utterly excludes boasting and promotes humility, love, prayer, praise, trust in God, in all who truly believe the Gospel.

Freeness Of Salvation:

We believe the Scriptures teach that the blessings of salvation are made free to all by the Gospel; that it is the immediate duty of all to accept them who believe by obedient faith; and that nothing prevents the salvation of the greatest sinner on earth except his own inherent depravity and voluntary refusal to believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, which refusal will subject him to eternal condemnation.

I Thessalonians 1:4; Colossians 3:12; I Peter 1:2; Titus 1:1; Matthew 11:28; Isaiah 55:1,6,7; Revelation 22:17; Romans 10:13; John 6:37; Acts:2:38; John 3:15,16; I Timothy 1:15; I Corinthians 15:10; Ephesians 2:4,5; John 15:40; John 3:18,36.

Concerning The Way Of Salvation:

We believe the Scriptures teach that the salvation of sinners is wholly of the grace of God, through the merits of the shed blood of the Lord Jesus Christ. We believe that in order to be saved, sinners must be born again; that the new birth is a new creation in Christ Jesus; that it is instantaneous and not a process; that in the new birth the one dead in trespasses and in sins is made a partaker of the divine nature and receives eternal life, the free gift of God; that the new creation is brought about in a manner above our comprehension, not by culture, not by character, nor by the will of man, but wholly and solely by the power of the Holy Spirit in connection with divine truth, so as to secure our voluntary obedience to the gospel; that its proper evidence appears in the holy fruits of repentance and faith and newness of life.

John 3:3; II Corinthians 5:17; Luke 5:27; I John 5:1; John 3:6-7; Acts 2:41; 16:30-33; II Peter 1:4; Romans 6:23; Ephesians 2:1; II Corinthians 5:19; Colossians 2:13; John 1:12-13, 3:8; Galatians 5:22; Ephesians 5:9.

Atonement For Sin:

We believe the Scriptures teach that the Son of God, by appointment with the Father, freely took upon Him our nature, yet without sin; that His death on the cross made a full atonement for our sins; that His atonement consisted not in setting us an example by his death as a martyr, but was the voluntary substitution of Himself in the sinners place, the Just dying for the unjust; that having risen from the dead He is now sitting on the throne in Heaven, and Savior for man.

Ephesians 2:8; Acts 15:11; Romans 3:24,25; John 3:16; Matthew 18:11; Philippians 2:7,8; Hebrews 2:14; Isaiah 53:4-7; I John 4:10; I Corinthians 15:3,20; II Corinthians 5:21; John 10:18; Galatians 1:4; I Peter 2:24; 3:18; Isaiah 53:11,12; Hebrews 7:25; 9:12-15; 12:2; I John 2:2.

Salvation Or Regeneration:

We believe the Scriptures teach that gift of salvation or regeneration, the new birth, is that change wrought in the heart by the Holy Spirit, by which a new nature and a spiritual life, not before possessed, are imparted, and the new person becomes a new creature in Christ Jesus; that a holy disposition is given to the mind, the will subdued, the dominion of sin broken, and the affections changed from a love of sin and self, to a love of holiness and God; that the change is instantaneous and not a process of goodness and works, effected not by culture or character, nor by the will of man, but solely through the power of God through the Word of God, and a Gift of God to man.

John 3:3,6; I Peter 1:23; James 1:18; II Corinthians 5:17; I John 2:29; Ephesians 4:24; Colossians 1:13; 2:13; Romans 6:13; John 1:12,13; I Corinthians 6:11; Titus 3:5-7.

Repentance:

We believe the Scriptures teach that repentance is a personal act, prompted by the Spirit of God; and consists in a godly sorrow over sin, together with prayer for pardon; also by a sincere hatred of sin, and a persistent turning away from, and abandonment of, all that is evil and unholy.

Matthew 3:1,2; 4:17; mark 1:15; Acts 3:19; 5:31; 17:30; 20:21; Luke 18:13; 24:47; II Corinthians 7:2; Romans 2:5; Isaiah 55:7; Psalm 51:1-4, 7.

Faith:

We believe the Scriptures teach that faith, inseparably united with repentance, is a solemn obligation and a grace wrought in our soul by the quickening Spirit of God; that it is a consent of the heart, consisting mainly of belief and trust, wherein the testimony of God is accepted and believed as true, while Christ is received for salvation; that through it the believer is brought into vital relations with God, as seeing Him Who is invisible, freely justified; that it reveals Christ to the soul as a willing and sufficient Savior, and commits the heart and life to Him.

Acts 16:31; Romans 1:17; 3:22; 5:1; 10:3,9-13; Hebrews 11:1, 6; James 2:23; Jeremiah 17:7; Psalm 34:22; 125:1; II Corinthians 5:7.

Justification:

We believe the Scriptures teach that the great Gospel blessing which Christ secures to such as believe on Him is justification; that justification includes the pardon of sin, and the gift of eternal life on principles of righteousness; that it is bestowed, not in consideration of any works of righteousness which we have done, but solely through faith in Jesus Christ, the Redeemers blood; by virtue of which faith His perfect righteousness is imputed to us of God; that it brings us into a state of most blessed peace and favor with God, and secures every other blessing needed for time and eternity.

Adoption:

We believe the Scriptures teach that adoption is a gracious act by which the Father, for the sake of Christ, accepts believers to the estate and condition of children, by a new spiritual birth; sending the Spirit of Adoption into their hearts, whereby they become members of the family of God, and entitled to all rights, privileges, and promises of children; and if children, then heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Jesus Christ to the heritage of all saints on earth, and an inheritance reserved in Heaven for them.

Romans 8:14-16; Galatians 3:26; 4:5-7; Ephesians 1:5; I John 3:1; Hebrews 12:7; I Peter 2:9.

Sanctification:

We believe the Scriptures teach that sanctification is that work by which, according to the will of God, we are set apart unto God and made partakers of His holiness; that it is both a declared fact and a progressive work; that it is begun in regeneration; and that it is carried out in the hearts of believers by the presence and power of the Holy Spirit, the Sealer and Comforter, through the continual use of the Word of God, self-examination, self-denial, watchfulness, prayer, and in the practice of all Godly exercises and duties.

Preservation Of The Saints:

October 1, 2025

We believe that all believers are secure forever. We believe the Scriptures teach that such as are truly born again, being born of the Spirit of God, cannot utterly fall away and finally perish, or have to be reborn into the family of God once being truly saved, but are kept by God the Father, Jesus Christ the Son of God and by the Holy Spirit the power of God through faith unto salvation.

Righteous And The Wicked:

We believe the Scriptures teach that there is a radical and essential difference between the righteous and the wicked; that only such as through faith are justified in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ, and sanctified by the Spirit of God, are truly righteous in Gods esteem; while all such as continue in sin and unbelief are, in His sight, wicked and under the curse; and that this distinction holds among men in this life and after death, in the everlasting state of the saved, and the everlasting conscious suffering in the lake of fire of the lost.

Concerning The Unseen World. Angels:

We believe the Scriptures teach that there is a vast celestial kingdom of spirit beings called Angels, in ages past created holy, glorious, and higher than man; a vast company of various ranks worshiping God, ministering to His children.

Psalm 148:2,5; Colossians 1:16; Nehemiah 9:6; Hebrews 1:14; Psalm 103:20; 104:4; Daniel 9:21.22; Luke 9:26; Mark 8:38; Daniel 10:13; 12:1; Jude 9; Revelation 12:7; Psalm 80:1; 99:1,11; Revelation 4:6-8; Ezekiel 1:4-28; Isaiah 6:1-3; II Thessalonians 1:7,8; Psalm 34:7; Acts 12: 7-11; II Kings 6:17.

The Devil, Or Satan:

We believe the Scriptures teach that Satan, as the mighty angel Lucifer, was once holy, enjoying heavenly honors; but that through pride and ambition to be as the Almighty, fell and drew after him a host of angels; and that he is now the prince and power of the air, the unholy god of this world; that he is man's great tempter, the enemy of the Lord Jesus Christ, the accuser of the saints, the author of all false religions, the chief power back of the present apostasy; the lord of the Antichrist, and the author of all the powers of darkness; destined however to final defeat at the hands of Gods own Son, and the judgement of an eternal justice in hell, a place prepared for him and his angels.

Concerning Sin:

We believe the Scriptures teach that sin is any transgression of or want of conformity to, the revealed will of God; including every realm and affecting every race and species amongst creation; that every man is born with a sin nature toward evil which results in acts of wrong-doing; that the wages of sin is death, being separation from God in this life and throughout eternity.

Concerning The New Testament Church:

We believe the Scriptures teach that a Baptist Church is a congregation of baptized believers, associated by covenant in the faith and fellowship of the Gospel; observing the ordinances of Christ; governed by His laws, and exercising the gifts, rights, and privileges invested in them by His Word; that its only Scriptural offices are pastors, elders, bishops, and deacons, whose qualifications, claims, and duties are clearly defined in the New Testament; that the true mission of each church is found in the Great Commission, first, to make individual disciples, second, to build up the church by baptizing those believers, third, to teach and instruct as He has commanded; that His order cannot be reversed; that each church has the absolute right of self-government, free from any interference of any body of individuals or organizations; that the one and only Head of each church is Jesus Christ through the Holy Spirit; that it is Scriptural for churches to like faith and order to co-operate with each other in contending for the faith and for the furtherance of the Gospel, but that every church is the sole and only judge of the measure and method of its co-operation; that in all matters of membership, policy, government, discipline, and benevolence, the will of each church is final.

Scriptural Baptism:

We believe the Scriptures teach that baptism is the immersion in water of the believer in Christ, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, to show forth in solemn and beautiful emblem our faith in the crucified, buried, and risen Savior, with its effect in our death to sin and resurrection to a new life; that it is a pre-requisite to the privileges of church membership; that infants are Gods little ones, whether children of Christian or non-Christian parents, and are safe in Christ until an age of moral accountability is reached, thus making any thoughts of infant baptism unnecessary.

The Lords Supper:

We believe that the Scriptures teach that the Lords Supper, is a provision of unleavened bread and the non-fermented fruit of the vine, as symbols of Christ body and shed blood; partaken of by the members of a church, in commemoration of the suffering and death of their Lord, and in helpful anticipation of His return.

Concerning Heresy And Apostasy:

We believe the Scriptures teach that it is necessary to maintain a total and complete separation from all forms of heresy and ecclesiastical apostasy. We believe the Scripture admonishes us to try them, mark them, rebuke them, have no fellowship with them, withdraw ourselves, receive them not, have no company with them, reject them, and separate ourselves from them,

Concerning The Grace Of Giving:

We believe the Scriptures teach that giving is one of the fundamentals of the faith; that God is the Source of all blessings, temporal and spiritual; that tithing is a Bible principle, and that the storehouse for the tithe in this present age is the common treasury of the church; that we are under obligation to serve God with our time, talents, and material possessions; and are commanded to cheerfully, regularly, and liberally bring our tithes and offerings into the storehouse upon the first day of the week.

Concerning The Union Of Marriage:

We believe Scriptures teach that God ordains the family and the Union of Marriage is only between a Man and a Woman. We believe that any form of homosexuality, lesbianism, bisexuality, incest, fornications, adultery, and pornography is a sinful perversion. We do not condone, accept or allow, nor will be affiliated with any other type behavior or relationship between Man or Woman of the same gender that would oppose the teachings of Gods Word concerning Man and relationships to be promoted or partaken within our membership.

Concerning The Resurrection And Last Things:

We believe the Scriptures teach that Jesus Christ rose literally and bodily from the dead on the third day; that having ascended into glory, He alone is our merciful and faithful High Priest in things pertaining to God; that this same Jesus shall return to earth bodily, personally, and visibly; first all genuine believers will be caught up (raptured) out to meet the Lord in the air by raising the righteous dead and catching up all living believers in the twinkling of an eye, for believers to stand at the Judgement Seat of Christ to give account for their deeds, while a seven year period of tribulation on earth, then with the saints set up His glorious kingdom of a millennium of peace and righteousness. That period will be ended by Christ's executed judgement upon an unbelieving world at the White Throne Judgement; that at the final day of judgement all Christ-rejecting sinners will be raised, judged and cast into the lake of fire for everlasting damnation, that the saved will live with Him for eternity according to the sure promises of God.

Concerning Eternal Destiny:

We believe all men will spend eternity either with Christ or eternally separated from Him. We believe the lost who die wait in a literal Hell for the day of final judgement where they will be assigned to punishment in a literal lake of fire. (Revelation 20:11-15)

We believe those who have accepted Christ as Savior will experience a everlasting eternal life. (I Thessalonians 4: 13-18; I Corinthians 15: 51-58)
